

APPLICATION

FOR

ADMISSION

Dear Student:

Thank you for choosing to apply to Corvid Academy. Transitioning to a new school is an exciting process and we hope to be as helpful as possible in matching our students' aspirations and talents with the unique opportunities available here. Evaluating your application is a privilege that we take seriously. We are all looking forward to getting to know our applicants and their families better over the next several months.

The checklist below is provided to assist you in this process. It outlines the various details you must fulfill in order to complete your application by May 5th.

Sincerely,

Linda Sofa
Headmaster

Additional Materials

Personal Interview

Consult the admissions department to which you are applying regarding deadlines and procedures for scheduling an interview.

Graded Writing Sample (Required for applicants to grades 11, 12, and postgraduates only)

Please include a graded copy of a paper of your choice. The paper should come from an academic course—History or English essays are the most frequent selections. The copy should be complete with the teacher's comments. Please do not send a long research essay but rather a paper written as part of a regular assignment.

Supplemental Materials (Optional)

If you consider the student's arts and/or athletic experience to be a major factor in his/her application profile, you may submit supplemental materials (in electronic format) in support of the application for review by our faculty.

For submissions related to the arts please send them to admission@corvidacademy.org

For all other submissions, please send materials to admission@corvidacademy.org. Preferred formats include: YouTube, Vimeo, QuickTime, MP4, M4V.

Please check here if you plan to submit supplemental materials in support of your application; provide the category and a brief description below.

Parent/Guardian Statement

To be completed by parent(s) or guardian(s) At Corvid, we believe that the success of students is directly linked to the type of support and encouragement they receive from both their family and their school. We seek to form partnerships with our parents that will allow us to provide the best foundation of support for our students. The formation of that partnership begins during the application process. We hope you will answer the following questions in a way that will help us get to know your child as well as possible.
